

KNOW BEFORE YOU OWE

paying for college

TERMS YOU SHOULD KNOW

- ✓ Exhaust grants and scholarships
- ✓ You don't have to accept all loans offered. You should borrow only what you need
- ✓ Federal loans should be your first choice

TIPS FOR RESPONSIBLE BORROWING

- ✓ Keep track of how much you're borrowing
- ✓ Understand terms of your loans and keep copies of your loan documents
- ✓ Before committing to a college, estimate total college costs
- ✓ Research starting salaries in your field.

Loans:

Money that is borrowed and must be paid back with interest. There are two types; federal and private.

Scholarships:

Aid that gets awarded on basis of academic merit, talent, or a particular area of study. Awarded by college or other organization. Does not have to be repaid.

Interest:

Interest is the amount of money you are charged for allowing you to borrow money.

Federal Work Study:

Money you earn from a job to help pay for school expenses. Does not have to be repaid.

Grants:

Aid awarded on the basis of financial need. Does not have to be repaid.
